

2013 All Charities Fundraising Proceeds Distributed to Partners

Community generosity reached a new high this year with the combined proceeds from the 2013 All Charities Auction Weekend and Ocean Reef Club Charity Dues Check Off totaling more than $2.8 million, more than half a million dollars over last year. According to All Charities Chairman Tom Davidson, "These funds are divided between the partners based on agreed upon formulas. The formula splits the proceeds to the on the Reef not for profits based on a combination of need and the amount of self-funding each institution was achieving when All Charities Partnership was formed, resulting in consolidation of 29 fundraising events down to just six."
